

Moreton Bay

Shorebird Forum

Thursday 20 September 2018, 9am – 4pm

333 Bennetts Road Norman Park QLD

9:00 am REGISTRATION AND WELCOME

9:15 am SCIENCE AND MONITORING

Migratory Shorebird population trends and ecology

Professor Richard Fuller, University of Queensland

Turning Data into Action

David Edwards, Chairperson, Queensland Wader Study Group

10:00 am MORNING TEA

10:30 am SHOREBIRD MANAGEMENT UPDATES

Update: The Australian Government's Wildlife Conservation Plan for Migratory Shorebirds

Dr. Mark Carey, Migratory Species, Biodiversity Conservation Division, Australian Government

Round-table update on shorebird management activities and challenges

One spokesperson per organisation – 10 minutes each. Bring 2 slides: 1 on agency activity, 1 on challenges

Plenary - Prioritisation of top three issues for afternoon session

Louise Duff, CVA

1:15 pm LUNCH

2:00 pm ACTION PLANNING

Facilitated discussion to define priority issues, challenges and actions to address them

3:30 pm AFTERNOON TEA

3:45 – 4:00 PLENARY AND CLOSE: Amelia Selles, Queensland Government

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Land and water managers from the local government, community and industry sectors, scientists and community groups involved in shorebird research, monitoring, conservation and management.

PLEASE REGISTER BY MONDAY 17 SEPTEMBER

This event is free but places are limited to 25. Please register your attendance at:

TO REGISTER CLICK HERE

Further Information: contact Louise Duff E: lduff@cva.org.au M: 0432 688775

This forum is coordinated by Conservation Volunteers through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program.

National
Landcare
Program

